John V. Sheehan & Company, Inc.,
1550 Woodward Avenue,
Detroit, Michigan.

Gentlemen:-

Thank you for your Express Money Order for fifty cents for one copy of "Coin Heards" sent you on December 5th last.

The item you enquire about as having been billed you on May 10th was for a copy of Adams & Woodin "U. S. Pattern, Trial and Experimental Pieces". This copy sells at $3.00 less the dealer's discount given you of 15%, or $2.55. The book was mailed you by Parcel Post on January 29th, 1921, and a bill was sent you at that time. A duplicate of the bill was sent you on May 10th, but we received no word from you, hence the reason for our calling the amount to your attention by letter of January 29th, 1922.

Hoping this will enable you to clear up this matter, I am,

Yours very truly,

Curator.

Gentlemen:

On April 15th, as per your order, we sent you two books by Gillingham (Italian Orders of Chivalry, etc.; Spanish Orders of Chivalry, etc.) together with an invoice covering the same for $4.33. On June 10th we sent you a statement of this amount. Believing that this small matter has probably been overlooked, we are writing to ask you for a settlement as we wish to close up this item on our books.

Very truly yours,

THE AMERICAN NUMISMATIC SOCIETY
